A SELECTED, ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY OF ARTICLES AND BOOKS IN THE HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES PUBLISHED IN POLAND, 1981 *

* This is the second, expanded, installment in East Central Europe's annual series of select, annotated bibliographies of Polish publications. Due to delays in obtaining Polish books, the selection of periodicals is far more comprehensive than the book section. Hence, the reader's indulgence is requested for the omission of significant book titles. The splendid cooperation of the Library of Congress, especially the European Reading Room, is gratefully acknowledged.
FOLKLORE Includes both historical and contemporary concerns as well as methodological studies.

GEOGRAPHY AND TOURISM Concerns both contemporary and historic materials.

GOVERNMENT AND POLITICS Concerns the administration of the contemporary PRL, the role of the PZPR (PUWP), law, and the judicial system.

HISTORIOGRAPHY AND THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY See also RELIGION, PHILOSOPHY AND THE CHURCH as well as HISTORY. This category is restricted to works dealing with broad questions of historical interpretation. The sub-category of GENERAL HISTORY is found only in the Book Section of the Bibliography.

HISTORY Sub-divided chronologically and (partially) thematically. For contemporary developments, see the appropriate categories. A number of largely historical works can be found under MILITARIA, NATIONAL MINORITIES, JOURNALISM AND THE PRESS, as well as EDUCATION.

INTERNATIONAL POLONIA Includes works on the Polish community outside Poland or the activities of prominent émigrés.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS Concerns problems in contemporary international affairs. Historic aspects of Poland's foreign relations may be found under the appropriate sub-category of HISTORY.

JOURNALISM AND THE PRESS Includes accounts of both contemporary and historic aspects of communications broadly understood.

LINGUISTICS AND ONOMASTICS See also ANTHROPOLOGY AND ETHNOGRAPHY.

MILITARIA Includes both theoretical studies of weapons, tactics, and fortifications, as well as studies of significant episodes in Polish military history in which the military aspect is the central focus. See also the appropriate sub-sections under HISTORY.

NATIONAL MINORITIES Includes works concerning the various national groups who have formed part of historic Poland.

RELIGION, PHILOSOPHY, AND THE CHURCH Includes both theoretical works as well as material on church history and administration.

SOCIOLOGY AND PSYCHOLOGY See also FOLKLORE and ANTHROPOLOGY AND ETHNOGRAPHY.

SOLIDARITY Concerns all aspects of the complex developments in Poland broadly associated with the Solidarity movement.

Periodicals Utilized:

Acta Archaeologia Carpathica (AAC)
Acta Poloniae Historica (APH)
Acta Universitatis Lodziensis: Folia Historica (AULFH)
Acta Universitatis Nicolai Copernici: Filologia Polska (AUNCFP)