THE JOURNAL OF JEWISH THOUGHT & PHILOSOPHY

Scope & Coverage
The aim of the journal is to provide an international forum for Jewish thought, philosophy, and intellectual history from any given period. The emphasis is on high scholarly standards with an interest in issues of interpretation and the contemporary world. Articles are expected to cover philosophy, biblical studies, mysticism, literary criticism, political theory, sociology, and anthropology. The journal welcomes submissions in English, French, and German, as well as English translations from articles first published in Hebrew.
