Impacts of International Law on the Restructuring of the Global Financial System

Cornelia Manger-Nestler*
I. Introduction
   1. The Starting Point: A Crisis-influenced System
   2. Methodology
II. Main Actors in the Global Financial System
   1. Overview
   2. Bretton Woods Institutions, in particular the International Monetary Fund
      a. Origin and Development
      b. Structure of the IMF aa. Legal Status
         bb. Organizational Structure
         cc. Governance Reforms
      c. Tasks of the IMF
         aa. Mandate
         bb. Tasks and Instruments
         cc. Lending Function
         dd. Surveillance Function
   3. Economic and Social Council of the United Nations
   4. International Cooperation beyond the United Nations System
      a. “Groups”
      b. Financial Stability Forum/Board
      c. Bank for International Settlements aa. Development and Organizational Structure
         bb. The Basel Committee on Banking Supervision III. Changes and Challenges after the Start of the Crisis
   1. General Remarks
      a. Global Financial Stability as the Objective
      b. Aspects of Governance, Legitimacy and Effectiveness
      c. Dichotomy between Hard and Soft Law Instruments 2. Role of Selected Global Financial Institutions after the Start of the Crisis
      a. International Monetary Fund
      b. Group of Twenty
      c. Financial Stability Board
      d. United Nations
      e. Bank for International Settlements
      f. Special Relationship between the European Union and International Financial Institutions
IV. Summary