BIBLIOGRAPHIA GNOSTICA: SUPPLEMENTUM VIII

BY

DAVID M. SCHOLER

South Hamilton, Massachusetts

This is the eighth in a series of supplementary bibliographies to David M. Scholer's Nag Hammadi Bibliography 1948-1969 (2747). This supplement contains items published in 1978, as well as earlier items which had not been previously included, and follows the general pattern and limits of the preceding ones (Novum Testamentum 13 [1971], 322-36 [2756]; 14 [1972], 312-21 [2939]; 15 [1973], 327-45 [3139]; 16 [1974], 316-36 [3428]; 17 [1975], 305-36 [3776]; 19 [1977], 293-336 [4079]; 20 [1978], 300-31 [4349]).

In general, items are included only if they have been personally confirmed. It is especially regrettable that it has not been possible to secure or see a copy of B. Aland, Gnosis: Festschrift für Hans Jonas (Göttingen: Vandenhoeck & Ruprecht, 1978) before this supplement had to be completed; it will be included in the next one. There has been, in fact, only one-half year between the completion of the seventh supplement and the completion of this one. This accounts in part for the fewer number of items included here.

The enumeration of bibliographic entries continues that of the book and supplements, and thus this eighth supplement begins with 4213. For new reviews of books previously listed the author, a brief title and the bibliography entry number of the book are given. Cross-references, abbreviations and organization of the material follow those used in the previous supplements.

In reference to Section IV (Coptic Gnostic Library) it should be noted that information on a particular tractate may be found under the "general" heading for a codex (and not otherwise cross-referenced) in those cases in which a single work covers an entire codex or a majority of the tractates within a codex. The "table of contents" remains the same as that given in the seventh supplement.

Certain problems of inclusion continue. The reader is referred to the introductions to the fourth and seventh supplements.

I continue to be appreciative of the help given to me by many scholars who notify me of their publications or supply bibliographic information. I especially encourage assistance in locating relevant chapters, or sections of chapters, in books which otherwise may not be recognized as containing units on gnosticism and Nag Hammadi.
