Russian History
RUSSIAN HISTORY

Aims & Scope
Russian History’s mission is the publication of original articles on the history of Russia through the centuries, in the assumption that all past experiences are inter-related. Russian History seeks to discover, analyze, and understand the most interesting experiences and relationships and elucidate their causes and consequences. Contributors to the journal take their stand from different perspectives: intellectual, economic and military history, domestic, social and class relations, relations with non-Russian peoples, nutrition and health, all possible events that had an influence on Russia. Russian History is the international platform for the presentation of such findings. Among its contributors, the journal counts eminent scholars like Sheila Fitzpatrick (Chicago), Jeffrey Brooks (Baltimore) and Peter B. Brown (Providence).

Editor-in-Chief
Richard Hellie, University of Chicago
